22ND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR RENEWABLE MOBILITY

20 – 21 JANUARY 2025 | BERLIN

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

The “Fuels of the Future” international conference is the top event for the European biofuel and renewable fuel industry, while also serving as an important discussion forum for German, European, and international development of renewable mobility. In January 2025, we anticipate that over 600 international participants will attend, including representatives from feedstock sourcing and processing, the biofuel and renewable fuel sector, the mineral oil and automotive industry, the chemical industry, the transport and logistics sector, certification systems, as well as the worlds of politics, academia, and research.

The conference offers a compact programme with presentations on current industry developments, the economic and legal framework for renewable fuels, feedstocks, technological developments, and sales potential in international markets.

THE PROGRAMME WILL FOCUS ON THE FOLLOWING TOPICS:

- The political and regulatory framework for biofuels, renewable fuels, and renewable drive systems at the international, European, and national level
- Prospects for commercially available biofuels (biodiesel, bioethanol)
- E-fuels and 2nd or 3rd generation renewable fuels
- Biomethane in the transport sector
- Biofuels and renewable fuels from waste and residues
- Biofuels and renewable fuels in shipping, aviation, heavy haulage, and freight transport
- Sustainability certification of biofuels in the context of growing global markets
- Power-to-x fuels, hydrogen from biomass and renewables, and the latest developments in market access
- Recent developments in international trade in biofuels
- Electromobility in the context of hybridisation with defossilised fuels
- Innovative sustainable mobility concepts in municipalities
- Biofuels and feedstocks in the context of agricultural trade and markets
- R&D projects on biofuels and renewable fuels
- Climate change mitigation potential of renewable drive energies for agriculture and forestry
- Material use concepts and bio-economy strategies

You are cordially invited to attend the Fuels of the Future 2025 conference to learn more about these topics and discuss them with entrepreneurs, policy makers, and scientists. Our conference aims to provide a robust platform for the various development pathways for alternative fuels and drive technologies, as well as promoting intensive encounters and networking.
